

We – the member agencies, faculty, management, and staff of the Fire Academy – hereby dedicate this Wall of Honor to all those who once trained here among us, and who died while taking part in fire/rescue activities or while engaged in military action during a tour of duty with the U.S. armed forces.

